The primary goal of the Institute as stated in the college’s catalog:

Interior Designers Institute is a boutique college, specializing in teaching interior design and interior architecture. The college’s specialized curriculum offers each student a personalized education with student-focused faculty who love teaching. IDI’s goal is to be a producer of interior design graduates who become some of the most well-known and successful designers in the country.

The philosophy of the program as endorsed by most major interior design associations:

“Interior Design includes a scope of services performed by a professional design practitioner, qualified by means of EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE, and EXAMINATION, to protect and enhance the life, health, safety and welfare of the public.”

Additional goals of the program as conceived by the faculty, Program Advisory Committee, alumni and other practicing design professionals:

- Provide students with an education that enables them to easily enter the interior design profession as an entry-level designer.
- Enable students to design spaces for a diversified community with varying cultures, physical capabilities and economic backgrounds.
- Understand the importance of professional ethics and integrity as an interior designer as well as contribute to the community utilizing their skills and talents.
- Teach students the technical, analytical, conceptual and communication skills required of designers in the design profession.
- Create a learning environment that fosters individuality, creativity and a motivation to succeed.
