

202 History 2

Professor Donald Gardner

History 2 Twelve (12) Weeks

Course Overview A survey-style course beginning with early stages of the Industrial Revolution and the arrival of mass-production and continuing to present times both in Europe and in America. The course is designed to provide the student with a cursory look at the Modern Movement, social changes and the advent of mass production, which continue into life of today and with which we continue to learn how to handle both cause and effect.

Course Objectives To develop the understanding of historical furnishings and the architectural enclosures enabling effective design solutions satisfying functional, behavioral and aesthetic needs.

To understand the process used to grasp past solutions and solve contemporary problems.

- determine functional relationships between user and final results
- developing and articulating the lexicon in continued use.
- developing awareness of past design problems and subsequent solutions
- prepare for visual recognition exams via multi-media presentations and textbooks
- determine historical design rationale

Attendance: Each student may have a total of two absences. However, more than two consecutive class meeting absences or three non-consecutive meeting absences per course may result in the student being withdrawn from that course. Attendance is considered an important habit to acquire in becoming a mature, responsible member of the professional community.

Extra Credit: THERE IS NO EXTRA CREDIT. To permit extra credit work for certain students would be unfair to others.

Course requirements: General readings, two quizzes, and a final exam.

Grading:

1. 20 Points Slide Progress Quiz 1
2. 20 Points Slide Progress Quiz 2
3. 60 Points Final Exam Slide and written format
4. Attendance (Drops one letter grade upon missing the second class session, drops to "C" at third miss, "F" at four lectures missed)

ABSOLUTLY NO EATING IN CLASSROOMS: You are not at the movies.

NO PHOTOGRAPHY NO AUDIO OR VIDEO RECORDING DURING CLASS SESSIONS PERMITTED. Phones/Camera phones must be turned-off

Academic Dishonesty: All academic work, written or otherwise, submitted by a student for a grade is expected to be the result of his/her own thought, research or self-expression. Plagiarism includes reproducing someone else's work or employing or allowing another person to alter or revise the work, which a student submits as his/her own. Should a student use part of, or refer to another source in the exercise, it is expected that proper credit will be given in accordance with established documentary formats. Any work submitted for grade, which proves to be that of someone other than the student will receive a "Ø" for grade.
